

Exercise 5

Write down one of your goals devised in the first three exercises, without going back to see what you have already written.

Were you able to easily remember your ideas?

Find a picture to represent your end point, and stick it in here.